

Old Rag Backpacking -Shenandoah National Park
November 19-20, 2005
Meet at St Francis at 7AM

The Troop will travel to Heavenly Acres Campground near Standardsville and set up camp. We will then travel by car to Shenandoah National Park where we will hike a circuit trail of 7.2 miles of challenging terrain. The hike will take approximately 4-5 hours. We will return to our campsite and prepare dinner by patrol. Sunday morning we will cook breakfast by patrol and should arrive back in Great Falls by 12:30 or 1pm.

Saturday morning, scouts should eat breakfast at home or bring something for the car trip. Also, scouts need to bring high energy trail food for lunch on the trail as well as a Nalgene bottle of water. Crackers, cheese, dried fruit, granola bars, GORP and power bars are suggested.

The costs are:   Camping and hiking fee:$8
                          Transportation: $12
                          Patrol meals $8
                          Total cost: $28
