

Williamsburg KOA and Busch Gardens

When: May 19-21, 2006

Where: Williamsburg KOA, Williamsburg, VA

Time: Leave St. Francis Church parking lot at 5:00 PM on Friday. Scouts will return ~ 2 to 3 PM on Sunday. Drivers will call ahead to establish a pickup location.

The scouts of the Patrol Leaders Council have decided to return to Williamsburg for a day of scouting advancement activities and an afternoon/evening at Busch Gardens. We plan to leave on Friday evening. To be eligible to attend Busch Gardens, you must attend the entire weekend. Late arrivals will not be accommodated.

We plan to camp Friday and Saturday evening at the campsites in Williamsburg KOA. The campsite has a heated pool so scouts will be allowed to bring their swimsuits and beach towel. Bring a bag lunch for dinner for the drive to Williamsburg. Patrols will prepare meals for Saturday breakfast, Saturday lunch, and Sunday breakfast. Saturday dinner will be at Busch Gardens. From mid morning to early afternoon Saturday, scouts will participate in advancement activities for Tenderfoot to First Class. The older scouts will conduct the instruction and participation of older scouts is expected. We will depart for Busch Gardens around 3:00 PM and stay until closing at 10 PM. The cost for each scout is $85, which includes transportation, admission to Busch Gardens, parking, the KOA camping fee, and patrol meals. As usual, the cost of the patrol meals is included in the trip fee. Scouts will need to bring approximately $15.00 for dinner at Busch Gardens and at least $5.00 for lunch during the ride home. Additional monies for activities in the park is discretionary with each scout.
